Aluminium Coping

Kladworx is your ultimate destination for top-quality aluminium coping solutions for the construction industry. We understand the importance of having a sturdy and stylish roofing system for your home or commercial property. That's why we specialise in the supply and installation of aluminium coping for parapet walls.

Our products are perfect to provide a sleek and stylish finish to your property. Our coping lengths, angles, and stop ends are designed to click fit into heavy-duty brackets that lock them in place, making installation a breeze. This innovative design eliminates the need for complicated and time-consuming installation methods, saving you both time and money.

The range of colours and textures available for the aluminium coping makes it an excellent choice for matching the décor of your home. Whether you need a unique shape or size, we have the capabilities to create customized aluminium wall coping solutions that meet the specific needs of your property.
