A premiere entertainment haven, Marquee Nightclub in New York City attracts celebrities, world-class DJs, and partygoers from all over the globe for some of the industry's most extravagant events. The original monumental 5,000-square-foot destination, Marquee offers an immersive party experience with extensive lighting, an elevated DJ booth, video, and laser systems to enhance the diverse musical talent headlining the venue.

The Marquee New York is a famous nightclub, as are its DJs who spin the latest hits in front of a crowd of jet-setters. If you have always wanted to dance alongside stars such as fashionistas seen on TV or social media influencers, you will certainly find what you are looking for. The club has already seen performances by famous dance music personalities such as Chuckie, GTA, Michael Brun and Steve Aoki. With a magnum of champagne or a craft cocktail like the Suite 16 Cider, you'll easily be won over by the rhythm and dancing lights of disco balls and video screens.

This nightclub is very popular, you will need to reserve a table in advance. It is 15 minutes north of midtown Manhattan.
